

Campus Overview

- Name: BUITEMS Sub Campus, Muslim Bagh
- Location: Qilla Saif Ullah
- Director: Babrak Ali Panezai
- Purpose: It is a purpose-driven campus designed to produce future leaders who are adept at "shaping tomorrow." The campus focuses on training students to be agents of change and innovation with a futuristic approach.

Vision and Commitments

- Sustainability Focus: The campus heavily emphasizes sustainable development, noting that good governance and best practices are key. It encourages faculty and students to become active advocates for sustainability through research, community engagement, and daily practices.
- Technological Upgrades: In the post-COVID-19 era, the administration is committed to upgrading the institute's infrastructure and academic delivery system with the latest technological equipment to compete in emerging markets.
- Core Values: Ethical decision-making, professional conduct, holistic stakeholder involvement, and knowledge competition.

Academic Programs Offered

The campus currently offers the following undergraduate programs:

1. Computer Science (Faculty of Information & Communication Technology - FICT)
2. Management Sciences (Faculty of Management Sciences - FMS)
3. Economics (Faculty of Management Sciences - FMS)
4. Public Administration (Faculty of Management Sciences - FMS)

Faculty Profile

- The campus boasts faculty from diverse fields with global academic achievements, dedicated to providing a high-quality, sustainable educational environment.