About Quetta (Pages 1–2)

- Location: Located in north-western Balochistan near the Pakistan-Afghanistan border.
- Area: Quetta has an area of 2,653 square kilometers (1,024 square miles).
- Geographic Context: Quetta is the provincial capital of Balochistan, Pakistan and the 9th largest city of Pakistan. The city is known as the "fruit basket of Pakistan," due to the numerous fruit orchards in and around it, and the large variety of fruits and dry fruits produced here. The city was also known as "Little Paris" in the past due to its beauty and geographical location. It is situated in a valley surrounded by Chiltan, Takatu, Murdar, and Zarghon mountains.

Notable Landmarks & Tourist Spots

- Hanna Lake: Nestles in the hills ten kilometers east of the city; it is a turquoise body of water that contrasts markedly with the surrounding hills. It features facilities for boat hire and a lakeside restaurant popular with hikers and campers.
- Hazarganji Chiltan National Park: Located 20 km south-west of Quetta, this is a protected park area. Legend holds that over a thousand buried treasures rest in the folds of the mountains, left behind by historical armies including Bactrians, Scythians, Muslims, and Mongols. The Chiltan Hill Viewpoint provides a panoramic view of the city.

- Pir Ghaib: A waterfall and picnic spot located 70 km from Quetta City in the historic Bolan valley.
- Kharkhasa: Located 10 km west of Quetta in a 16 km long narrow valley containing a variety of flora and fauna species.
- Other Excursions: Kirani, Ziarat (featuring the world's second-largest juniper forest at 125 km north of Quetta), Urak Valley, Har-bohi, and Pishin are popular outing spots famous for natural forests and fresh fruits.

Museums & Culture

- Quetta Geological Museum: Located on Sariab Road; contains a collection of rocks and fossils.
- Command and Staff College Museum: Dedicated to British military history and housed in the former bungalow of Field Marshal Bernard Montgomery.
- Quetta Archaeological Museum: Located on Wafa Road; features rare antique guns, swords, manuscripts, Stone Age tools, prehistoric pottery, Mehrgarh articles, coins, and photos of Quetta before the 1935 earthquake.
- Balochistan Arts Council Library: Houses regional arts and crafts.

Leadership Statements (Pages 3–4)

Foreword by Ahmed Farooq Bazai, Vice Chancellor (S.I.)

"Keeping in view the pivotal geographical position of Pakistan in the region, it can safely be asserted that there is immense potential for the country's economic development. The process of economic development needs not only investment on the part of the entrepreneurs but also trained and competent human resources with up-to-date knowledge of the current global business trends.

The Faculty of Management Sciences at BUIITEMS serves the diverse needs of developing capable human resource in various functional areas of management and has been living up to the expectations since September, 2002. It is one of the pioneer faculties of the University. The faculty is producing motivated, confident and knowledgeable graduates and the feedback received from the job market has been encouraging. Our graduates have impressed the employers with their competence and expertise everywhere."

Dean's Message by Dr. Abdul Salam Lodhi, Dean

Student Support Structures (Pages 56–57)

Support Hierarchy

- Departmental Focal Person (CMS): Manages all electronic course registrations, student records, grades, and general technical concerns on the Campus Management Solution system.
- Convener: Individual faculty members assigned to specific student batches to coordinate course progress metrics and act as student-department intermediaries.
- Chairperson's Office: Provides high-level administrative resolution for personal, financial, or educational queries during standard operational hours.
- Faculty Coordinator: Directs overall student affairs and academic planning paths across the entire management faculty footprint.
- Dean's Office: The highest strategic body of FMS; reviews escalating student issues and seeds innovative student-led projects.

Strategic Partnerships & Career Units

- Microsoft DreamSpark Network: Run via the IT Directorate; gives students free, verified access to registered new versions of engineering and learning software suites.
- Financial Aid Portfolio: Handles university fee waivers, HEC indigenous grants, and corporate partner funding (e.g., USAID, PPL). Includes work-and-study opportunities that wipe out program fees while giving students real-world office exposure.
- Career Unit Services: Focuses on Career Assessments, Career Advising, Resume/Interview Workshops, Mock Interview Feedback loops, On-Campus Recruitment events, and annual Career Fairs.

Research & Incubation Framework (Pages 58–59)

Office of Research, Innovation, and Commercialization (ORIC)

Acts as the central administrative hub to motivate faculty research groups, secure national/international funding grants, and provide financial incentives for high-tier international journal publication records.
