

Department Overview

- Department Name: Department of International Relations
- Faculty: Faculty of Social Sciences and Humanities
- History: Established initially as a discipline under the Social Sciences Department in 2006. It achieved a major milestone by gaining independent status as a standalone department in 2016.
- Core Focus: Focuses on providing a deep theoretical understanding of the international political system, global institutions, historical frameworks, and foreign policy-making. The program is designed to cultivate skills in critical thinking, quantitative reasoning, and practical application to societal challenges.
- Career Horizons: Graduates are heavily positioned to attain international scholarships and transition into professional roles within national diplomatic services, international organizations (UN, etc.), multinational companies, non-governmental organizations (NGOs), and global Think Tanks.

Bachelor of Science in International Relations (BS IR)

Admission Requirements

- Academic Background: Intermediate (FA / F.Sc / ICS) or an equivalent benchmark qualification from any recognized board passed with at least 50% marks in aggregate.
- Testing: Success in an entry test administered by NTS.

Degree Requirements

- Total Credit Hours: 133
- Total Courses Required: 45
- Minimum Academic Standing: CGPA  $\geq$  2.0
- Research Core: Includes a mandatory two-part Senior Research Project across the final year.

Curriculum Plan (Program Schema by Semester)

Note: Course structures denote Credit Hours (Theory + Lab/Practical).

- 1st Semester: Foundation of English–I (3+0), Islamic Studies/Ethics (2+0), Introduction to International Relations (3+0), Introduction to Political Science (3+0), Introduction to Sociology (3+0). Total: 14 CH
- 2nd Semester: Foundation of English-II (3+0) (Prerequisite: FOE-I), Fundamentals of Computer (2+1), Comparative and Developmental Politics (3+0), Globalization and International Relations (3+0), Introduction to Psychology (3+0), Elementary Mathematics (3+0). Total: 17+1 = 18 CH
- 3rd Semester: Political System of UK and USA (3+0), Pakistan Studies (2+0), Diplomatic History of International Relations, 1648–1945 (3+0), Political Thought (3+0), Communication Skills (3+0), Introduction to Statistics (3+0). Total: 17 CH
- 4th Semester: Critical Reading (3+0) (Prerequisite: FOE-II), Principles of Economics (3+0), Diplomatic History of International Relations, 1945-2000 (3+0), Geo-Political Structure of the World (3+0), Introduction to Philosophy (3+0), Constitutional Development in Pakistan (3+0). Total: 18 CH

- 5th Semester: Theories of IR (3+0), Foreign Policy Analysis (3+0), Islam and I.R (3+0), International Organizations (3+0), Conflict Management and Resolution (3+0). Total: 15 CH
- 6th Semester: International Relations in the New Millennium (3+0), Foreign Policy of Pakistan (3+0) (Prerequisite: Foreign Policy Analysis), International Political Economy (3+0), Defense and Strategic Studies (3+0), Peace Studies (3+0), Research Methodology (3+0). Total: 18 CH
- 7th Semester: International Law–I (3+0), Diplomacy: Theory & Practice (3+0), Politics, Economy & Foreign Relations of South Asia/Central Asia (3+0), Foreign Policy of USA, Russia and China (3+0) (Prerequisite: Foreign Policy Analysis), International Politics of Environment (3+0), Research Project Part I (3). Total: 18 CH
- 8th Semester: International Law–II (3+0) (Prerequisite: International Law-I), Human Rights and International Relations (3+0), Arms Control & Disarmament (3+0), Politics, Economy & Foreign Relations of Middle East (3+0), Research Project Part II (3). Total: 15 CH

Master of Science in International Relations (MS IR)

- Status: Actively offered by the department alongside the undergraduate program to provide advanced, post-graduate specialized evaluation of international systems.
(Note: Detailed requirements for the MS track such as coursework metrics are maintained within the graduate catalog rather than this baseline department page framework).